

Offshore

Design review, GRP platform structure

Holistic study of an offshore deep-sea production platform
Design study, joint venture by Conoco/DuPont and Kværner Engineering

Client: Kværner Engineering

The review included following aspects:

- Design criteria - technical feasibility
- Cost and production aspects
- Principles for impact protection
- Selection of materials